

ACSD Constitution

Article I

NAME

The name of this organization shall be “Association for Christians in Student Development” (ACSD).

Article II

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Association for Christians in Student Development is to provide opportunities for the integration of Scripture and the Christian faith in the student development profession, to promote professional growth, to provide opportunities for Christian fellowship, to allow for the exchange of ideas, and to provide various services for membership in pursuit of this mission.

Article III

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

1. We believe there is one God, eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
2. We believe the Bible to be inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God.
3. We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious death and atonement through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection and ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal, visible return in power and glory.
4. We believe man and woman created in the image of God, that they were tempted by Satan and fell, and that, because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature, regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely necessary for salvation.
5. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life, and by whom the church is empowered to carry out Christ’s great commission.
6. We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the saved and the lost; those who are saved unto the resurrection of life, and those who are lost unto the resurrection of damnation.

Article IV

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to all persons involved or interested in the student development profession in institutions of higher education who subscribe to the doctrinal statement and meet the requirements outlined in the bylaws.

Article V

OFFICERS

1. Officers of the association shall be the president, president-elect, vice president, secretary, treasurer, membership chair and publications and media chair.
2. Officers shall be elected by membership through a ballot provided on the ACSD website. The vice president, secretary, treasurer, membership chair and publications and media chair may serve in the same office for no more than two consecutive three year terms. The term of the president shall be limited to one two-year term. The president-elect will serve one two-year term with automatic assumption of the office of president at the end of their respective terms.
3. Officers must be current members of ACSD.
4. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the officers of the association.

Article VI

MEETINGS

The annual meeting shall be held at a time and place determined by the Executive Committee.

Article VII

AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the constitution may be made at an annual business meeting of the association provided the proposed amendments are submitted via email or U.S. mail to each member at least 30 days prior to the meeting at which they are to be considered. A two-thirds majority vote of approval by members present at the business meeting shall be necessary for adoption.

- e. Consider and present any suggested amendments of the constitution and/or by-laws.
- f. Authorize an annual audit of the financial records of the association.

Section 4. Vacancies

A vacancy in office other than that of the president and president-elect shall be filled by appointment of the Executive Committee. The vice president shall assume the office of the president in the event the presidency is vacated. In the event that the position of president-elect is vacated, a new president-elect will be elected through a ballot on the ACSD website and serve the remainder of the president-elect term and then serve as president.

Section 5. Removal from Office

An officer may be removed from office for any of the following reasons:

- a. Demonstration of negligence, incompetence, inability, or corruption in performing the duties of said office.
- b. Demonstration of corruption or moral impropriety at his or her home institution.
- c. In situations involving incompetence, corruption, and moral impropriety and in accordance with Biblical guidelines, it is expected that the officer in question will have been confronted about the relevant issues in a prayerful manner and in a spirit of love and humility. While full restoration to a position of leadership and influence within the organization may not be wise or possible, restoration to a supportive Christian fellowship remains a goal.

Any elected or appointed officer of the Executive Committee may move to remove an officer. A seconded motion for removal shall require a unanimous vote by the Executive Committee to confirm removal. Removal from office is immediate. No officer is permitted a vote in the matter of his or her removal.

- a. If removal proceedings are initiated against the president, the president-elect will preside for the removal discussion and vote.
